Kyle's approachable personality allows him to achieve a high settlement rate for his clients.

Practicing in consumer collections, Kyle represents clients who are looking to recover money from defaulted loans, including credit cards and vehicle leases. His list of clientele typically includes nationwide lenders, community banks, and credit unions, as well as businesses that extend credit to consumers.

When Kyle takes on a new case he addresses it head-on and looks for sensible solutions that will ultimately help his clients achieve their desired result in the most efficient manner possible. He is direct and fair, regardless of whether he is communicating with clients, defendants, the courts, or opposing counsel. His goal is to resolve matters by negotiating an outcome – ultimately sparing all parties from multiple motions and court hearings. When cases cannot be resolved so easily, he takes a proactive, methodical approach and moves them through the litigation process towards judgment and/or recovery.
