Called a “born litigator” by fellow attorneys, AJ brings composure, cleverness, and confidence to every client relationship.

AJ joins the firm’s consumer collections team to support financial institutions including banks, credit unions, and credit card companies. He possesses strong experience, having worked as an associate attorney with another law firm in Columbus, Ohio. He also served as a clerk for two practices while attending Capital University Law School. Outside of consumer collections, he’s well-versed in criminal defense, family, and estate law.

Highly regarded for his compassionate personality and industrious work ethic, AJ looks forward to employing legal strategies that recover outstanding debts in the fastest and most efficient ways possible.

AJ grew up in a small town called Geneva in Ashtabula County, Ohio. Growing up, he enjoyed music, playing sports, and participating in various outdoor activities. Some people may be surprised to learn he didn’t initially pursue pre-law in college at The Ohio State University (Go Bucks!). He studied athletic training with hopes to be a physical trainer in the medical field. However, his inclination for linguistics and reading drew him toward the legal field. He’s extremely happy with this decision.

AJ is a member of the Columbus Bar Association (CBA), the Ohio State Bar Association (OSBA), and Central Ohio Advocates for Juvenile Law (COAJL).
