Ryan's unique ability to balance firm legal advocacy with a soft, more consolatory approach ensures clients receive results-driven representation that is both personalized and empathetic.

Ryan S. Mudra is dedicated to providing effective, client-focused legal solutions in the consumer collections field. With years of experience representing nurse staffing agencies and contingent skilled labor staffing agencies, Ryan has honed his skills in negotiating settlements, handling mechanics' liens, and managing payment bonds under both the Miller Act and private contracts. His approach is marked by honesty, dedication, and persistence, with an emphasis on collaboration and understanding.

Ryan earned his Juris Doctorate from the University of Akron School of Law in 2021 after completing a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science at Kent State University in 2018. Admitted to practice in Ohio in 2022, he is a member of the Ohio Bar Association.

A history enthusiast and avid reader, he has a particular interest in World War I and J.R.R. Tolkien's works. When not exploring history, you can find Ryan enjoying blues and metal music or cheering on the Cleveland Guardians.
