Jacob Kruer is an experienced bankruptcy attorney dedicated to advocating for his client's interests in complex bankruptcy matters.

Licensed in both Ohio and Kentucky, Jacob has developed a unique perspective in bankruptcy law, honed through nine years of professional experience, including five years as a paralegal and six years as an attorney. Working closely with clients across various industries—businesses, individuals, consultants, sales associates, and other professionals—he is known for his honest, helpful, and hardworking approach.

Jacob earned his J.D. from Northern Kentucky University Chase College of Law in 2019 after completing a B.F.A. in New Media. Initially driven by a desire to help artists navigate legal challenges, Jacob discovered his passion for assisting clients with diverse needs in the bankruptcy space.

Outside his legal practice, Jacob enjoys producing music, creating art, and is an avid skateboarder, wakeboarder, and snowboarder. His blend of creativity and commitment to his clients brings a distinct approach to his work, making him a trusted advocate in bankruptcy law.
