Jill Milicev is a dedicated attorney based in Chicago, Illinois, with a strong background in creditor rights and collections law.

She brings over six years of industry experience in the collections field, offering clients a deep understanding of the legal and operational complexities involved in debt recovery and financial dispute resolution.

As a key member of the firm's Real Estate Default group, Jill focuses on representing creditors in foreclosure proceedings, loss mitigation, and related real estate litigation. Her role includes advising financial institutions, mortgage servicers, and investors on strategies to protect their interests in defaulted real estate assets, combining her collections experience with in-depth knowledge of property law.

Jill earned her Juris Doctor from IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. She completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Known for her practical approach and attention to detail, Jill leverages her industry experience to provide strategic counsel to clients navigating collection matters and real estate default challenges. Her work is marked by professionalism, persistence, and a results-oriented mindset.
