

Cristopher J. Nolan

Attorney

Chicago, IL
312.253.9631
cnolan@weltman.com

Weltman
Weltman, Weinberg & Reis Co., LPA

Cris Nolan brings a unique blend of international legal experience and adaptable problem-solving to his practice.

Cris, a skilled attorney with over 13 years of professional experience, brings a people-focused approach to every matter he handles.

Prior to joining Weltman, Cris worked at a boutique law firm specializing in securing legal judgments for victims of international terrorism. His work included traveling to Kenya and Tanzania to meet with victims of the 1998 U.S. Embassy bombings and engaging with survivors of modern-day slavery under the Kafala system. Known for his ability to adapt to complex situations and collaborate with people from diverse backgrounds, Cris differentiates himself by anticipating opposing strategies and crafting proactive, strategic solutions for his clients.

Outside of work, Cris is a devoted husband and father. He enjoys playing guitar, flying drones, and spending time with his family, and his golden retriever, Bandit.

His combination of professional rigor, adaptability, and personal curiosity makes him a valued advisor for clients seeking thoughtful, results-driven representation in collections and litigation matters.

Focus Areas

- Commercial Collections
  - Arbitration, Defense & Appellate Matters

Admissions

- Illinois, 2013
- Northern District of Illinois, 2013
- US District of Columbia – Pending swearing in Education

- J.D., John Marshall Law School, 2012
- B.A., Political Science, Lake Forest College, 2008

Affiliations

- Illinois State Bar Association: Member
- Illinois Creditor's Association: Member