Genny brings a well-rounded and deeply practical perspective to her work, shaped by more than a decade of litigation experience, including five and a half years of bankruptcy experience, and many years supporting accounts receivable functions in bankruptcy and litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Genny spent five and a half years representing debtors in high-volume bankruptcy practices across Ohio, where she developed extensive experience in Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 matters, including a strong focus on resolving complicated confirmation issues. She also gained exposure to Chapter 11 proceedings, further broadening her understanding of complex bankruptcy cases. This diverse background allows her to anticipate challenges from multiple angles and deliver efficient, informed solutions for her clients.

Known for being friendly, dedicated, and a self-proclaimed “bankruptcy geek,” Genny is passionate about the Bankruptcy Code and the opportunities it provides for structured financial recovery. She is committed to delivering exceptional client service by being responsive, approachable, and solution-oriented. Genny takes pride in her ability to break down complex legal concepts into plain English, helping clients navigate both the technical and practical aspects of bankruptcy while maintaining compliance and maximizing recovery opportunities.

Outside of her legal practice, Genny is a devoted mother, an avid reader, a crossword enthusiast, and a strong trivia competitor. She enjoys yoga, travel, a wide range of music, and cheering on her favorite teams - the Cleveland Browns, the Cleveland Guardians, and the Florida State Seminoles. Her curiosity and enthusiasm for learning extend beyond the office, where she continuously seeks new knowledge and experiences that enrich both her personal and professional life.
