Known for his efficient, diligent, and thorough approach, Dylan works to deliver effective results while continually improving the efficiency of his practice.

Dylan Bhaerman brings a unique perspective and a lifelong familiarity with debt collection to the firm. He has developed excellent experience in collection, replevin, foreclosure proceedings, and other litigation matters, helping the firm's litigation and complex collection department obtain the best results possible for its clients.

Dylan's path to becoming an attorney began long before law school. Growing up, he spent time working in his father's consumer bankruptcy practice, where he gained firsthand exposure to debt collection and the legal profession. He enjoys bringing a thoughtful, detail-oriented approach to each matter he handles.

Outside of the office, Dylan enjoys working out, playing tennis, cooking, spending time with his family, and enjoys working on cars and computers.
