Dan's exemplary litigation skills have allowed his clients to collect on even the toughest of accounts.

When traditional collection efforts are no longer advantageous, litigation may be necessary for creditors to recover the money they're owed. With his comprehensive understanding of the state and federal laws that govern the debt recovery industry, Dan is diligently focused on achieving maximum recoveries for his clients. From the initial contact with the borrower, to the filing of a lawsuit, to post-judgment recovery, Dan considers every possible option along the way before counseling his client on a recommended course of action.

Prior to joining the firm, Dan served as vice president and senior counsel for one of the largest diversified financial institutions in the U.S. His litigation matters included UCC, trust and fiduciary, employment, intellectual property, brokerage, mortgage, and collection counterclaims. Dan is AV® Preeminent™ Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, its highest available rating for legal ability and professional ethics.
